

SHALL WE MEET

Shall we meet beyond the river?
Life anew beyond the grave;
Have you come to Christ our Saviour,
Who by death the way did pave?

Shall we meet beyond the river?
There in robes of white to dwell?
Oh, the joys to share forever!
Mortal tongue can never tell.

Shall we meet beyond the river?
Is your treasure in the sky?
Hands that grip on gold and silver
Death will loosen: all must die.

Shall we meet beyond the river?
Time is speeding fast away;
Pain and care will soon be over;
Are you longing for that day?

Shall we meet beyond the river?
Brightly beams that morning sun;
Just a home where saints will gather
Is your crown of glory won?

Why not meet beyond the river?
Parting is but precious gain.
From your sins God will deliver;
For each one the Lamb was slain.

By simple words we simplify
The gospel we believe;
If none but Christ we magnify,
Then none we will deceive.
